

Spook Week Calendar of Events

23 Black and Orange Day (accessories only) Food item collection begins...	24 Giggles &amp; Glamour (wear your most sparkly and glamorous accessories)	25 Wacky Hair Day *Pumpkins due in the front foyer (label) The Giggle Floor is open for laughs (location: library)	26 Oh Happy Day! Smiles for Miles (Wear items that show off smiles or make people smile)	27 Wardrobe Rewind (Who says socks can only be worn on your feet? Time to switch it upside down and in reverse) *Doors Due
30 Hilarious Hats &amp; Silly Socks	31 Halloween Spook-a-Thon (see schedule for the day)	Costume Reminders: no weapons, no masks, no inappropriately themed costumes, (ie killer clowns, adult version costumes) and no costumes that are disrespectful to any cultural or ethnic groups.

- Candy count begins Monday October 23rd. Guesses are $0.25 each. The closest without going over wins.
- Continue to collect non-perishable food items for Vaughan Food Bank
- Giggle Floor presentation (formally witching hour - schedule will be posted)
- Giggle Metre Challenges: listen to announcements for details (will include activities to be done during recess and/or food item collections )
- Pumpkin Decorating - the theme is keeping it silly, funny and happy this Halloween - no scary/gross)
- Door Decorating - Let's fill the hallways with good, clean silly Halloween fun. The funnier the door the better the prize!

